

Effective Family Engagement: Developing Positive Family-School Partnerships

---

In this course, you will:

- Develop positive relationships with families that honor and value their diverse strengths.
- Co-create school-family partnerships linked to learning while integrating the Nevada Standards for Parental Involvement and Family Engagement.
- Identify and implement evidence-based strategies and practice in order to effectively and meaningfully engage families.

Remove the PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT & FAMILY ENGAGEMENT NV License Provision

---

Dates: March 11 – May 19, 2024 (10 weeks)

Format: Online via CANVAS and weekly Zoom session

- Section 1: (Mondays, 4:30-5:30 pm Pacific Standard Time)
- Section 2: (Wednesday, 4:30-5:30 pm Pacific Standard Time)

Credit: 3 SUU graduate-level, continuing education credits Cost: $69.00 paid directly to SUU

Section 1 Registration

Section 2 Registration

---

Instructor: Darl Kiernan, PhD (dkiernan@ecsdnv.net)

Biography:

I hold a Ph.D. in Literacy Studies along with experience in K-12 and higher education settings. I am passionate about supporting educators and administrators in advancing literacy for all students through effective school-family partnerships. I strive to provide professional learning that empowers educators to refine their knowledge and practice as a pathway to improved outcomes for every student.