

Multicultural Education: Culturally Responsive Teaching Across Contexts

Questions? Contact Annie: ahicks@ecsdnv.net

---

In this course we will:

- Expand our understanding of identity and diversity beyond race/ethnicity
- Develop a strengths-based approach to understanding how identity influences the way we teach and how students learn
- Implement evidence-based practices for developing a culturally responsive approach to engaging, teaching, supporting and assessing learners while maintaining high expectations for their learning and growth
- Remove the MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION license provision (Nevada)

Course Dates: Fall 2021 | Starting and Ending Dates: TBD (9 weeks)

Course Format: Meet one time each week via Zoom and complete other coursework online through CANVAS.

Course Text: All required readings/texts are included in CANVAS

Credit: 3 SUU graduate-level, continuing education credits Cost: $63.00 paid directly to SUU

If you would like to be added to the upcoming course interest list, please email: ahicks@ecsdnv.net

Instructor: Annie Hicks (ahicks@ecsdnv.net)

Biography: Annie has a Master of Science in Equity and Diversity in Education from the University of Nevada-Reno, and has teaching experience in both K-12 and higher education contexts. Annie is passionate about supporting educators, administrators, and other school professionals in their pursuit of equity and inclusion through effective school-family partnerships and culturally responsive teaching. She strives to provide collaborative, strengths-based professional learning and coaching that empowers participants to become agents of change within their unique context.

www.nnrpdp.com